

A record your organization holds

Everything on this page is invented for training. There is no such person.

Read the heading that matches your work. The record underneath is the same either way.

If you work for a civil society organization — this is a participant intake record, filled in by a programme officer after a community meeting.

If you work in a newsroom — this is a source contact sheet, filled in by a reporter after a first conversation.

Field	What it says
Full name	(withheld in this training version)
Phone	+251-9XX-XXX-417
Where she lives	House 18, Block C, Lensa Kebele, Kora City
Work	The only night pharmacist at the small clinic beside the Kora bus depot
What she described	Uniformed personnel entered a neighbouring office at 22:17 on 9 July 2026 and took two people away
Health	Panic attacks since; currently receiving counselling
Family	Her brother works in the city command's procurement unit
The recording	The audio file name contains her phone number and the date
What she agreed to	Confidential internal analysis only. She did not agree to publication, and did not agree to it being put into any AI tool
What the colleague wants	A public-facing summary, written using a free chatbot, today

A colleague needs a public-facing summary of this by this afternoon, and wants to use a free AI tool. Can they? Write one sentence saying why.
